The image is a technical diagram of a garment pattern, specifically a bodice, shown from a front center perspective. The pattern is defined by a solid black line and a dashed black line. The word "LILY" is printed in a light gray font across the pattern. The text "FRONT CENTER" is written vertically on the left side. The pattern is a trapezoidal shape with a central V-neckline. The solid line forms the outer edge, and the dashed line forms the inner edge. The word "LILY" is printed in a light gray font across the pattern. The text "FRONT CENTER" is written vertically on the left side.
